NimNik, a web-based retail business is aimed at providing high quality products at an affordable price to consumers. This 3 compartment lunch box makes healthy consuming much easier. The newly released set of plastic containers was recently launched on Amazon. Every set of 10 microwave-safe food containers are similar to the Japanese lunchbox. The 3 compartments make it possible to carry different kinds of food in a single container. NimNik has conveniently made the bento box with one larger part and 2 smaller sized ones. This permits a section for proteins, vegetables, carbs or other mixes.

This set of 3-compartment bento boxes plastic food containers are ideal for daily meal prep and a great alternative to Tupperware for food storage in the kitchen! Whatever the goal, whether it's weight loss, healthy eating, adding muscle or simply saving money, NimNik food containers offer the perfect solution! Simply stack inside the fridge or slide into the gym bag. Take to school, work, camping, gym, hiking or even golf! The NimNik Bento boxes are freezer safe and come in packs of 10 units. This gives the option to prepare 10 meals and not worry about exactly what to eat. Prep the meals at the start of the week and do not worry about cooking in the days to come. This also helps to maintain a healthy regime and avoid junk food or take aways.

The leak proof bento boxes for adults or kids have 3 separate compartments (18oz, 9oz, 9oz), to help keep a variety of foods apart. These premium FDA Approved and BPA free Polypropylene (PP) food containers are microwave safe, allowing for convenient reheating of meals in seconds. The bento boxes are freezer safe and suitable for long-term food storage, allowing to prepare a week's worth of homemade meals beforehand and store fresh. They are easy to use and easy to clean being dishwasher safe.

The 10-pack bento lunch box set is also available on Amazon UK. The multi-functional bento boxes can be used for diet and portion control, and are also great for daily use as lunch boxes for adults / kids, for marinating, keeping snacks handy while on the go and as restaurant to go boxes. The bento boxes make great divided dinner plates or snack trays! They are great for storing sandwiches, salads, pasta, fruit, vegetables, cereal, candy, ice cream and baby food.

The different sections also make it ideal as each of the dishes put in the box remains in its own location. Users don't have to worry about their food getting all mixed up, or winding up with an untidy meal. The leak proof compartments make it easy to lug the bento box around without stressing over the meals inside getting ruined. More than this, portion control ends up being much easier to master. Diet control becomes a lot easier with the 3 compartments. No more overeating or having excessive of one thing. NimNik's bento boxes provide a perfect method to get just the correct amount of food with each meal that a healthy portion should have.

The NimNik bento lunch boxes can be purchased on Amazon USA and Amazon UK. As a special launch offer NimNik is promoting this product by offering a 10% discount to all customers. The promo code NIMNIK10 needs to be applied during the checkout process on Amazon.

NimNik Kitchenette, offers premium quality products which will ensure customer satisfaction. That's why they offer a lifetime guarantee. If anyone is unsatisfied with the performance of the food containers, they can contact NimNik for a free replacement or refund. The bento box set comes with an absolutely risk free refund guarantee.
